OPEN CALL FOR NOMINATIONS FOR 2022

Glenelg United Methodist Church is seeking dynamic leaders to serve on our Administrative Leadership Committees to help guide and direct the ministry and mission of our congregation. In most cases leaders on these committees must be active church members and willing to serve at least a three-year term. Details about each committee, including descriptions, time commitments, and suggested spiritual gifts and talents can be found using the links below.

- Trustees (Grounds and Facilities)
- Staff-Parish Relations Team (Personnel)
- Finance (Fundraising, Budget, Stewardship)
- Nominations-Lay Leadership Development (Leadership Development)

If you think you'd be a good fit for any of these committees, please take a moment to fill out our new "Church Leadership Nominations Application" or forward this letter to someone else you think would be a good fit. Your completed application will be forwarded to our Nominations Committee for review. We will do our best to help place every applicant in some area of ministry.

You are an important and integral part of the Body of Christ. God has equipped you with unique spiritual gifts to make an impact in the church and in the world. If you would like to discover what your gifts are and how to use them, contact Lisa Dolce at coach@glenelgumc.org or 410-375-1928.

*The deadline for submitting nominations is September 20, 2021.
